TOP 5 WAYS TO ENGAGE STUDENTS THROUGH REMOTE LEARNING WITH STUDYSYNC

StudySync teachers can continue to provide lessons through the online platform while students work at home. No Technology? No worries. StudySync lessons and texts are easily printable. Here are 5 ways to continue assignments through #RemoteLearning:

1 CONTINUE COLLABORATING - TRY A STUDYSYNC BLAST

Blasts, assigned online or printed, are short, high-interest read/write assignments that deliver content around relevant topics and current events to students in a familiar, social media format. A new Blast is published every weekday during the school year, ensuring the availability of fresh, new content while students work from home.

Four Ways to Use Blasts

2 REVIEW YOUR OPTIONS - SEARCH THE STUDYSYNC LIBRARY

StudySync’s continuously growing library includes short stories, poems, excerpts and complete texts of novels and dramas, essays, speeches, and primary source documents. New texts are added every month. The library supports interchangeable print and digital use. You can search and assign Texts, Blasts, Skills, Units or lessons from the StudySync Library. Here are details about Spotlight Skills that could be assigned for practice:

Spotlight Skills Flyer

3 PREPARE IN ADVANCE - CREATE A CUSTOM UNIT

using our Unit Creator tool with a variety of StudySync Library items. You can draw from the Blasts, Skills, and Texts, searching by title and topic, to create your custom unit.

Unit Creator Flyer
4 KEEP THEM READING - ASSIGN NOVEL STUDIES

to engage students in a full novel study, either online or offline. Use novels that you have on hand or find them available in the StudySync Library using the Filter button. What better time to have students dive deep into a piece of literature than from home?

Full-text Novel Studies Flyer

5 WORK OFFLINE - SEND HOME THE STUDENT READING & WRITING COMPANION

which can be used at home, includes every text from the Core units, as well as all accompanying Think Questions, Skills Focus, and Writing Prompts. Students can annotate and highlight as they read. Sample student annotations are provided in the margins of every First Read and Close Read text to provide students with a model for effective annotation and analysis. The Student Reading and Writing Companion also includes the Writing Process and Writing Skill lessons from the Extended Writing Project.
TOOLS TO SUPPORT REMOTE LEARNING

StudySync’s integration with Google Classroom and Google Docs is a great way to ensure continued collaboration and learning of all students in a remote learning environment.

Have students download the Free Mobile Student App now. It is downloadable from Apple, Google, and Kindle devices and allows students to work off-line on additional devices to keep students connected during distance learning.

Mobile Student App Instructions

Create a StudySync Community to which building-based instructional coaches, teachers or administrators can assign content—ensuring all students are completing the same assignments and content in a remote learning environment.

Creating a StudySync Community

Check out our webinar schedule which will include several focused webinars on creating and assigning online and offline assignments for remote learning.

Find Additional Resources for Customer Support. And, don’t forget your StudySync specialist is always happy to support you and can be easily reached at Implementation@studysync.com.